

Thinking Money for Kids Exhibit Opening
Thursday, October 14, from 3-7 PM
All Ages
No registration required
Location: Kennedy Library (500 Hoes Lane)

Join us at Kennedy Library (500 Hoes Lane) for our Thinking Money for Kids Exhibit Opening! Scheduled tours run on the hour from 3PM-7PM. Enjoy financial literacy activities every hour at thirty minutes past the hour. See our activity schedule below. Visitors to the exhibit are invited to complete a “What would you do with $100?” leaf handout for our money tree display. Leaf submissions will be entered into a raffle.

3 PM: Thinking Money for Kids Tour

3:30-4 PM: Design Your Own Dollar Bill Activity

If YOU worked in the U.S. Department of the Treasury as a banknote designer, what would our dollar bill look like? When designing a dollar bill, you must choose a design that contains characteristics that identify the bill as American currency AND make sure you include anti-counterfeiting features! Are you up for the challenge?

4 PM: Thinking Money for Kids Tour

4:30-5 PM: Decorate-Your-Own Piggy Bank Activity

Decorate your own piggy bank and develop good money saving habits for life. Piggy banks are an excellent reminder to make smart financial decisions at a young age.

5 PM: Thinking Money for Kids Tour

5:30-6 PM: Welcome to the Snack Shack Activity

So many delicious snacks but only so much money to spend! How will you use your money math skills to decide what to buy? Participants will receive play money to make their “purchases.” Practice identifying currency, utilizing simple math skills, and making smart financial decisions while acquiring yummy snacks to munch on.

6 PM: Thinking Money for Kids Tour

6:30-7 PM: Money Math Scavenger Hunt Activity

Practice your money math skills while working your way through our scavenger hunt. Use the clues to find the largest possible sum of money hidden around the library.

7 PM: Thinking Money for Kids Tour & Raffle Drawing

Piscataway Public Library was selected to host Thinking Money for Kids, a traveling exhibition created by the American Library Association (ALA) in partnership with the FINRA Investor Education Foundation, through a competitive application process. We are one of just 50 sites nationwide that will host the exhibit.
