

Thinking Money for Kids Family Financial Literacy Day Saturday, November 13th

What is money? What is its function in society? How can we learn to use it responsibly? Discover the answers to these questions and more at our Family Financial Literacy Day event! Join us for a schedule of programs that explore the essential role that money plays in our lives and discover how we can learn to make smart financial decisions. See our event schedule below. All programs are virtual.

So You Want to Adopt a Cat

11:30 AM - 12 PM | Grades K-5 | Register Here

Our friends from the Karma Cat + Zen Dog Rescue Society can't wait to talk to you about the costs associated with having a pet of your very own! From food and toys to vet visits, you will learn the monetary responsibilities of pet ownership as well as the priceless benefits of having an animal companion. You will also enjoy a live tour of their Cat Adoption Center!

10 Money-Making Ideas Any Kid Can Do! with BizKid$

1-1:30 PM | Ages 7-11 years | Register Here

Join Emmy Award-winning TV series, Biz Kid$, and learn how to turn your passion into profit. Executive Producer Jeanning Glista will share stories of successful kid entrepreneurs who appeared on the show, and help you brainstorm ideas to launch your own money-making venture. Learn the simple steps of turning your passion into profits and walk away with a basic business plan that will be your roadmap to making millions.

Family Story Time: Money Smart

2-2:30 PM | Ages 4 years & up | Register Here

Let's learn about money! Join us for stories, songs, and a special craft.

Building Youth Financial Capability Through Stories

3-4 PM | Grades K-5 & Caregivers | Register Here

In this Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) webinar you will discover resources for building your child's financial capability through stories. CFPB will introduce you to Money as You Grow and the Money Monsters. Learn how CFPB materials are centered around a set of three building blocks for building financial knowledge, skills and developing habits and norms that build adult financial well-being. This program is presented by Leslie Jones, Youth Financial Education Analyst, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

Piscataway Public Library was selected to host Thinking Money for Kids, a traveling exhibition created by the American Library Association (ALA) in partnership with the FINRA Investor Education Foundation, through a competitive application process. We are one of just 50 sites nationwide that will host the exhibit.